

Cycle Club Lenasia - Pedalling with Purpose

Since its founding in 2009, the Cycle Club Lenasia (CCL) has grown into a thriving hub for cyclists of all levels. Rooted in Lenasia, the club's mission is to promote a healthy lifestyle, build camaraderie and empower the community - on and off the bike. What began as a simple initiative to get people riding has become a force in South Africa's cycling scene.

Today, CCL riders do not just enjoy the sport - they compete at some of the country's most prestigious events. From the Ride Joburg Cycle Challenge to the Cape Town Cycle Tour, the aQuellé Tour Durban and the gruelling Old Mutual Wealth Double Century, our athletes regularly take on these challenges and earn podium finishes, making CCL a name to watch.

With a welcoming and supportive environment, CCL now boasts 60 active members - ranging from beginners to elite competitors. More than a club, it's a community where cyclists grow, challenge themselves and connect.

But CCL's impact does not stop on the road. Fuelled by a deep sense of service, the club has raised over R778 210.00 for charitable causes, proudly supporting the following organisations:

Ammarah Paramedic Bursary Fund (2015),

Lenasia Cancer Society (2016),

Fountain of Inspiration (2018 and 2020),

Live to Give (2023),

Wheel to Heal (2023), and

Gaza Relief via Africa Muslims Agency (2024).

This commitment to community upliftment is central to our identity.

In 2024, as Lenasia celebrates 70 years, CCL proudly joins in honouring the legacy of a vibrant and resilient community. As part of the festivities, Lenasia will host a series of sporting, cultural, and social events throughout the year, including the Lenasia Secondary School's 70th Platinum Anniversary, celebrating its opening in February 1955. CCL stands proud as a symbol of Lenasia's growth, spirit and unity. CCL will host a Freedom Day Ride on 27 April 2025 to celebrate this occasion.

For many members, CCL is more than just a cycling club - it's a family. Whether riding at dawn, training together or celebrating achievements, the bond shared here runs deep. We ride for passion, purpose and progress.

Join us. Ride with us. Make a difference. Together, we're building a healthier, stronger, and more connected Lenasia - one pedal stroke at a time.
