

LENZ70 Hosts Photographic Exhibition and Writers' Book Fair

Lenz70, in partnership with Our Reading Tree, will host a Photographic Exhibition and Lenasia Writers' Book Fair on Saturday, 5 July at the Trade Route Mall in Lenasia.

The exhibition will showcase photographs of people and places in Lenasia over time taken by veteran photo-journalists Fakir Hassen, Paul Weinberg and Gopal Naransamy. Included in the exhibition will be a selection of photographs from the archives of the late ANC stalwart, Ahmed Kathrada.

The exhibition will be on display for one month at the ground floor store opposite the Wimpy at Trade Route Mall.

The Lenasia Writers' Book Fair will afford an opportunity to young and experienced authors from Lenasia to promote their books and discuss their ideas with the broader public.

Lenz70 has identified at least 40 authors from Lenasia, who have published books over the years. Naturally, some writers have passed on and their work will be acknowledged.

A writers' panel discussion will take place at the venue between 2pm and 4pm on 5 July, where they will explore the varied themes underpinning their books, share writing skills and develop a mentorship programme for young authors.

To mark seventy years of the existence of Lenasia, Our Reading Tree will hand out a free book each to the first seventy people who visit the photographic exhibition and book fair.

Interested authors may contact Ismail Vadi on 082 772 3119 for further details.
